the Annual Conference that is to assemble here next month. It says that Jackson "has been too willing to spread her lap and take what falla." We believe this a general charge on all State Capitals, and especially on the National Capital, and it may be true to some extent; but whatever may be said of our people, they have never, during our knowledge of them, been lacking in hospitality to visitors who have assembled here to promote the cause of religion, morality, education or fraternity. Our word for it, the members of Conference, and the ladies who may accompany them, will not have to camp out on the public square. The latch-strings will be on the outside of all our houses.

CITIZENS' MEETING. An Earnest and Enthusiastic Movement for Improved Public Schools, etc.

At a mass-meeting of the citizens of Jackson, held in the City Hall on the evening of November 14, 1887, Mayor John McGill was called to the chair, and L. F. Chiles was chosen Secretary. Mayor McGill explained the principal object of the meeting to be, the further im-
